

Courses Jointly Offered by Other Graduate Schools and Faculties

All courses offered by Faculty of Economics and Graduate School of Economics will be offered on and after Tuesday, May 10, 2011, but if you would like to take courses offered by other graduate schools and faculties, you need to attend them after they start. Please check their start dates on their web sites.

With regard to the registration of courses including those jointly offered by other graduate schools and faculties, you are required to register them during the course registration period specified by Faculty/Graduate School of Economics; May 16- May 31 (Faculty of Economics) and May 17- May 23 (Graduate School of Economics).

The start dates of the following courses jointly offered by other graduate schools and faculties are as follows:

Undergraduate level

[Courses jointly offered by Faculty of Law] starting on April 4

Civil Law (2) by Kawakami                      Political History of Japan by Kitaoka
Commercial Law (1) by Kato                      Commercial Law (2) by Goto
Economic Law by Shiraiishi                      Japanese Politics by Kawato
Administrative Law by Yamamoto

[Course jointly offered by Faculty of Engineering] starting on May 6

Basic Exercise in Computer Programming by Dodbiba and Murakami

[Course jointly offered by Faculty of Science] starting on April 5

Stochastic Models and Statistical Analysis by Yoshida
Stochastic Models and Statistical Analysis: Recitation by Yoshida

[Course jointly offered by Graduate School of Public Policy] starting on May 16

Energy Policy by Koyama and Managi

Graduate level

Middle Eastern Economy (by Nagasawa) starts on April 8.
International Economic Cooperation (by Aramaki) starts on April 8.
Development and Community-based Resources (by Nakanishi) starts on April 8.
Seminar on International Environmental Cooperation (by Goto) starts on April 8.